

Jacob Farnsworth
www.jacobfarnsworth.com
jake@baroquebloke.com

217 Morgan Street
Oberlin, OH 44074
(239)2904203

Education

Bachelor of Music 2014 Oberlin Conservatory of Music major: baroque flute performance
Conservatory Dean's Scholar

CRR de Paris, France 2011 2012
French baroque music studies

Campus Langues, Paris, France 2012 2013
French language studies

Florida State University 2006 2008 coursework: general studies and flute performance

Work Experience

Shift Leader and Sales Assistant for Slow Train Cafe, Oberlin Ohio
As shift leader: responsible for opening, closing, and running many aspects of day-to-day business

Pipe Organ Technical Assistant 2009 present
Trained under supervision of Hal Gober, curator of organs for Oberlin Conservatory.
Responsible for general maintenance of Oberlin's numerous pipe organs

Sales Assistant and Fabricator for Country Popcorn, Paris France. 2011 2013
Responsible for care of the work truck, set up and maintenance of equipment
Cooked kettle corn by hand,
Interacted with large crowds of diverse nationalities and languages

Freelance Construction Work 2009 present framing, drywall installation, demolition, remodeling, electrical, and plumbing projects

Relevant Coursework

Python Programming, winter term project working independently, website design.

Skills

Strong knowledge of operating systems and maintenance of Linux, Mac OS X, and Windows
Computer programming and web design
Photography experience using many types of cameras, equipment, and techniques
Photo editing including Photoshop and Aperture
Working proficiency in French
Competency with power tools, woodworking, and general construction techniques